

NATIONAL CONFERENCE
Trinity College – University of Melbourne
January 17-20, 2011

“WORSHIP IN SMALL CONGREGATIONS”

The theme for our Conference will be “Worship in small congregations” (with or without the presence of an ordained person.) The growing number of small congregations within all the denominations represented in the Academy presents significant challenges for the leadership of worship and the celebration of the sacraments, both now and into the future.

VENUE AND OTHER INFORMATION

The Conference will be held at Trinity College (University of Melbourne), Royal Parade, Parkville. Accommodation will be in single rooms, with shared bathroom facilities. Bed linen and towels are provided. There are squash and tennis facilities available, but you will need to bring your own racquets and balls. Complimentary laundry facilities are provided on each floor (just bring some washing powder or liquid with you).

You are invited to bring a bottle (or two) of your favourite wine to share as part of our evening convivium times.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Father Gerard Kelly from the theology department of the Catholic Institute of Sydney will deliver the keynote address on Tuesday morning and will offer a theological and ecclesiological framework for our reflection on the major theme.

Pastor Ross Neville, Rural Consultant for Evangelism and Mission with the NSW Uniting Church Board of Mission, will offer the keynote address on Wednesday morning and provide an overview of the current situation and how the challenges involved can best be addressed, both now and into the future.

The Tuesday night public lecture will be delivered by the Rev'd David Orr, from the Benedictine Community in Sydney, a longtime member of the Academy. David will focus in his address on the priesthood of the people of God.

There will be ample opportunity to engage in conversation with our speakers, and with each other, in the context of the Conference.

Full details regarding our speakers, and their specific topics, will be circulated as soon as these arrangements have been finalised.
